LOSFA Outreach Programs

Trailblazer Program is a unique approach to training high school students about the availability of financial aid as a means of access to post-secondary education. The program includes a comprehensive three-day training workshop presented on a college campus by LOSFA personnel and other financial aid professionals for the purpose of educating selected high school juniors about the college admissions process and how to obtain financial assistance for college. Under the direct supervision of the high school guidance counselor, each Trailblazer is expected to use every opportunity to share knowledge of financial aid procedures with peers throughout their senior year of high school. Each Trailblazer is given a manual outlining all aspects of the federal and state financial aid programs available.

Professional School Counselor Workshops - Each Fall LOSFA conducts half-day workshops for high school counselors at several locations around the state. These workshops are designed to update counselors about the student financial aid process so they can best assist their students in preparing for their crucial first year of college. At each workshop, LOSFA representatives instruct counselors on the latest changes to both federal and state aid programs, completion of the FAFSA and other LOSFA services. During the 2008-09 school year, LOSFA introduced workshops for middle school counselors. These workshops are designed to provide middle school counselors with some tools and resources to promote early college and career awareness.

High School Presentations and Workshops - LOSFA annually provides presenters for individual high school financial aid workshops for parents and students. In Academic Year 2009-2010, LOSFA conducted financial aid and college access workshops at 207 individual high schools and 27 multi-high school events that were attended by 64,121 students and parents. To schedule a presentation, call 1-800-259-5626, or email your requests to custserv@osfa.la.gov.

College Goal Sunday is a FREE event designed to help Louisiana college bound students and their families with the financial aid application process. Financial Aid professionals are on hand to help complete the necessary paperwork (Free Application for Federal Student Aid—FAFSA) to get the funding needed to go to college with a particular focus on helping low-income, first-generation college students and their families. Louisiana’s College Goal Sunday event takes place in February of each year. Check www.osfa.la.gov for the date of the next event.

College Knowledge - The Louisiana Board of Regents, Louisiana Office of Student Financial Assistance (LOSFA) and Gear Up are working together to better educate middle school parents and students about the opportunities available and the requirements that must be met for a student to be eligible for college. The three groups together have received a two-year federal College Access Challenge Grant to spearhead communication with potential college students and their families. Parents interested in getting College Knowledge events scheduled at their school should contact their school principal or counselor. School officials should contact LOSFA at 1-800-259-5626 or custserv@osfa.la.gov.
