

FAFSA TIPS FOR UNACCOMPANIED YOUTH WITHOUT STABLE HOUSING

Questions on the 2011-2012 FAFSA that may cause difficulty for youth who are, or have been, homeless are listed below. Question numbers and steps refer to the paper FAFSA. Sections refer to the online FAFSA.

“Unaccompanied” means you are not living in the physical custody of a parent or guardian.

“Homeless” means lacking fixed, regular, and adequate housing, including living in shelters, motels, cars, and temporarily with other people because you have nowhere else to go.

Your permanent mailing address (Question #4; Step 1 of paper FAFSA)	Q: I don't have a permanent mailing address because I don't have a stable home. What address should I use? A: Use an address where you will be able to receive mail reliably. The address of your school (either your high school or university), or a trusted mentor or family member might be appropriate.
Student Dependency Status (Section 2 of online FAFSA; Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	Answer all the questions in this section the best of your knowledge. If you can check ANY of the following boxes, you will not have to provide parental information.
“As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you an emancipated minor?” (Question #53; Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	Q: I was emancipated at age 15 but lived with my aunt and uncle during my last semester of high school. How should I complete the FAFSA? A: Check “Yes” and complete the FAFSA as an independent student if you have a copy of a court order that you are an emancipated minor. The court must be located in your state of legal residence. If you do not have such a court order, you should check “No” for this question. However, you should review Questions 55-57 carefully, to determine if you qualify as an unaccompanied youth who is homeless or at risk of homelessness.
“As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you in legal guardianship?” (Question #54; Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	Q: I have been living with a family member/friend who provides for some of my financial needs, but that person has not been appointed my legal guardian by a court. How should I complete the FAFSA? A: A caregiver or other person with whom you are living is only considered a legal guardian if a court in your state of legal residence has established guardianship. You should check “Yes” if you have a copy of a court order indicating that legal guardianship was established. If you are living with a caregiver, but that caregiver is not your legal guardian as determined by a court in your state of legal residence, you should check “No” for this question. However, you should review Questions 55-57 carefully, to determine if you qualify as an unaccompanied youth who is homeless.

Am I considered an independent student? A: You are considered an independent student if you received a determination any time on or after July 1, 2010, that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless, or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless. The financial aid administrator at your college may require you to provide a copy of the determination.

unaccompanied youth who was homeless?” (Question #55 Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	If you do not have a determination but you believe you are/were an unaccompanied youth who is homeless or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless, contact your high school counselor, school district McKinney-Vento homeless liaison, school’s financial aid office, or the National Center for Homeless Education at 1-800-308-2145 for assistance. “At any time on or after July 1, 2010, did the director of an emergency shelter program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?” (Question #56; Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	Q: I stayed in a shelter last year. How do I complete the FAFSA? A: Check “Yes” if you received a determination any time on or after July 1, 2010, that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless, or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless. The financial aid administrator at your college may require you to provide a copy of the determination or other documentation. If you do not have a determination but you believe you are/were an unaccompanied youth who is homeless or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless, contact your high school counselor, school district McKinney-Vento homeless liaison, school’s financial aid office, or the National Center for Homeless Education at 1-800-308-2145 for assistance. “At any time on or after July 1, 2010, did the director of a runaway or homeless youth (RHYA) basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?” Question #57; Step 3 on the paper FAFSA)	Q: I am living in a transitional housing program. Am I an independent student? A: Check “Yes” if you received a determination any time on or after July 1, 2010, that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless, or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless. The financial aid administrator at your college may require you to provide a copy of the determination or other documentation. If you do not have a determination but you believe you are/were an unaccompanied youth who is homeless or an unaccompanied youth providing your own living expenses who is at risk of being homeless, contact your high school counselor, school district McKinney-Vento homeless liaison, school’s financial aid office, or the National Center for Homeless Education at 1-800-308-2145 for assistance. Questions #55-57	Q. I never stayed in a shelter, but I stayed temporarily with others because I had nowhere else to go. I have already graduated from high school. Am I an independent student? A. According to federal guidance (the Application and Verification Guide, or AVG), if a student does not have, and cannot obtain, verification from a school district liaison or a HUD- or RHYA-funded shelter, a financial aid administrator must make a determination of eligibility. This means that the financial aid administrator is required to determine whether or not you meet the definition of “homeless” and “unaccompanied.” Contact the financial aid office to ask for this determination. Be prepared to provide some documentation of your status (a letter from an employer, counselor, clergy, people with whom you may be staying, or others). If you do not have any documentation, request an interview with the financial aid administrator. The 2010-2011 edition of the AVG

	contains important new information regarding unaccompanied homeless youth (pp. 28-30). The entire guide may be downloaded at http://ifap.ed.gov/fsahandbook/1011FSAHandbookAVG.html If you continue to face difficulties, please contact the National Center for Homeless Education at 1-800-308-2145 for assistance.
Questions #55-57	Q. I provided a verification letter from my school liaison, but the financial aid office will not accept it. What should I do? A. According to federal guidance (the Application and Verification Guide, or AVG), it is not considered “conflicting information” if a financial aid administrator disagrees with an eligibility determination by a school district homeless liaison or a shelter director. The financial aid administrator must accept this documentation, and then contact either the state homeless coordinator, or the appropriate federal agency, with any questions or concerns. The 2010-2011 edition of the AVG contains important new information regarding unaccompanied homeless youth (pp. 28-30). The entire guide may be downloaded at http://ifap.ed.gov/fsahandbook/1011FSAHandbookAVG.html If you continue to face difficulties, please contact the National Center for Homeless Education at 1-800-308-2145 for assistance.
Parent Information (Online FAFSA Section 3; Step 4 on the paper FAFSA)	If you (the student) answered “Yes” to any question in Section 2/Step 3, skip this step and go directly to Step 5 on page 10.
2010 Income Tax Questions (Question #32 FAFSA Step 2 on paper FAFSA)	Q: I did not file a tax return, and I am not sure if I was required to file. How can I get information about whether I was required to file a tax return and how I can file now, if necessary? A: You must consult the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rules to determine your obligation to file a tax return. IRS information is available at http://www.irs.gov/. For the FAFSA, you should indicate whether you have filed or intend to file and continue to the following questions, as indicated. For more information about income tax and the FAFSA for unaccompanied youth, see NAEHCY’s tip sheet on this issue at http://www.naehcy.org/dl/tax_fafsa.doc
Welfare benefits, TANF (Question #44i FAFSA Step 2 on paper FAFSA)	Q: My parent or another caretaker gets TANF or welfare benefits for me. Is this my income? A: No. These benefits are income for the person receiving them. Do not include as part of your income any TANF or welfare benefits received by another person even if they are designated for your support or care. Also, you should not include these benefits when answering Questions 95-99.
Number of People in Your Household (Question #93 FAFSA Step 5 on paper FAFSA)	Q: I am staying with a friend’s family. Are they part of my “household”? A: No. If you are considered independent (for example, because you are an unaccompanied youth who is homeless), and you have no dependent children of your own, you are a family of one (yourself). For this question, as well as Questions 95-99, you should not count people with whom you share housing as part of your household.
Signatures (Question #10 FAFSA Step 7 on paper FAFSA)	Q: I have filled out this form as an independent student because I have been determined to be an unaccompanied youth who is homeless. Do I need my father’s and/or mother’s signature(s)? A: No. Because of your status as an unaccompanied youth, you are considered an independent applicant; parental signatures are not required.
